

CHRIS WADE is a music director, producer, writer, composer, accompanist, singer and vocal arranger in Los Angeles and NYC. Chris produces his singing groups RAISE, #TheAccidentals, The Belmont 4 and The Jolly Holidays in LA and NYC. Music Director/Pianist/Arranger credits: "David Ono's Defining Courage", current (Kennedy Center 11/11/23, Segerstrom, Aratani Theater, Hawaii Theater), "Hair" and "Cabaret" (Altadena Music Theater). Chris was the Vocal Producer/Arranger on Oprah's 2020 Vision Tour as he produced the RAISE Singers as part of Oprah's opening act with Daybreaker. Composer/Lyricist/Book: 29LIVES the series, Such Sweet Sorrow (RUSD Honors Musical Live Nation Fox Theater). Chris and his CWMP groups on TV: Miracle Workers (current), USCellular (current), Fox's Game of Talents (2021), Macys Parade (2021), CW's Christmas Caroler Challenge (2020), GEICO (2019). Education: BMI Musical Theatre Workshop (Composer), Wagner College, California Lutheran University, LACHSA (where Chris graduated on the Dorothy Chandler stage and presented speeches as Senior Class President in '96!). www.chriswademusic.com
@chriswade29lives